

AGENDA
Conformity Assessment – Design and Production
How to make products safe for selling
Monday 23 September 2019 at Mary Ward House

12:30 Registration, Lunch and Networking

13:15 Opening Remarks and Welcome

Martyn Allen, Technical Director, Electrical Safety First

13:30 PAS 7050 ‘Specification for placing safe products on the market’

Developed to help both business and regulators, this session will provide an overview of the new PAS 7050, explaining the background, purpose, development, next steps and aspirations for the new PAS.

*Steve Brunige – British Standards Institution
Gordon Maddan; Office for Product Safety and Standards*

13:45 Conformity Assessment Process – Mitigating Risk

Panel discussion exploring best practice and approaches to mitigate risk through conformity assessment for large businesses and SMEs.

Moderated by: Martyn Allen, Electrical Safety First

*David Bolton, British Retail Consortium,
Steve Curtler; Electrical Safety First
Andrew Gordon; CE Compliance Solutions,
Plus more to be announced*

14:45 Q&A

15:00 Tea and Coffee and Networking

15:30 Putting the Theory into Practice

Practical workshop to carry out a conformity assessment of one or more case study examples to determine whether or not to place a product on the market.

Moderated by: Martyn Allen, Electrical Safety First

*David Bolton, British Retail Consortium,
Steve Curtler; Electrical Safety First
Andrew Gordon; CE Compliance Solutions,
Plus more to be announced*

16:45 Q&A

16:55 Summary and Close